

Executive Summary

Chanos-Chanos Production Center is located at Daan Banwa, Purok 2, Estancia Iloilo. Estancia is not that known for neither agriculture products nor livestock. Rather, it is known for its overwhelming marine resources. In fact, Estancia is known around the country as the center for commercial fishing, even carrying the name "Alaska of the Philippines". Our reason for entering into this project is the fact that Estancia is known as the "Little Alaska" which means is given healthy to our body.

It is a sole Proprietorship kind of business. The employee were properly hired according to their respective skills. The product is a healthy spring roll which the main ingredient is milk fish. It also includes chopped vegetables such en carrot, cabbage, and egg. This study presented the total projection cost from weekly, monthly, yearly and up to its third year of operation.